Key Questions to Ask Your Doctor

Here’s a list of questions you might like to ask during your next visit.

1. Why do I need chemo?
   __________________________________________
   __________________________________________
   __________________________________________
   __________________________________________

2. How long will I need to receive chemo treatments?
   __________________________________________
   __________________________________________
   __________________________________________
   __________________________________________

3. What steps can I take to help keep my blood counts up, and why is that important?
   __________________________________________
   __________________________________________
   __________________________________________
   __________________________________________

4. If I have a serious side effect, how can I get help 24/7?
   __________________________________________
   __________________________________________
   __________________________________________
   __________________________________________

5. How did you select my chemo regimen?
   __________________________________________
   __________________________________________
   __________________________________________
   __________________________________________

6. How will I know whether my chemo is working?
   __________________________________________
   __________________________________________
   __________________________________________
   __________________________________________

7. Why does chemotherapy increase my risk of infection?
   __________________________________________
   __________________________________________
   __________________________________________
   __________________________________________

8. Why is it important to get the full dose of chemotherapy on schedule?
   __________________________________________
   __________________________________________
   __________________________________________
   __________________________________________